

Topic: (Application Number: Cxxxxxxx) “Compulsory Quarantine of Certain Persons Arriving at Hong Kong Regulation” under the Hong Kong Laws (Cap. 599C) on the person’s or persons’ travelling is necessary for purposes relating to manufacturing operations, business activities or the provision of professional services in the interest of Hong Kong’s economic development. “Application for Exemption from Compulsory Quarantine”

From: xxxxx@tid.gov.hk >

To: xxxxx@xxxxxxx

Mr./ Ms:

Thank you for your email and application.

Persons who meet the exemption from mandatory quarantine arrangements of the Trade and Industry Department must comply with the following requirements:

- (i) the owner of a Hong Kong enterprise holding a valid business certificate issued under the Business Registration Ordinance (No .310) and up to one person authorized and authorized by the enterprise to engage in manufacturing operations in the Mainland; or
- (ii) Up to two persons authorized and authorized by the enterprise referred to in paragraph (i) above.

We have considered your application, but we found that your company is not engaged in manufacturing operations in the Mainland. Therefore, we are unable to determine whether your application is eligible for the above exemption.

Trade and Industry Department