

Foreigners apply for Non-Criminal Record in China

In normal situation, aliens who have resided continuously in China for more than 1 year and have legitimate reasons for application may apply for a certificate of non-criminal record during their residence in China by presenting their passport and registration form of temporary residence for more than 1 year .

Some city provides different services, such as Shenzhen city which was allow over 6 months resided record ongoing apply the non-criminal record

No need to make an appointment, bring the following documents to the site for processing, processing generally takes 3 working days.

Address: Comprehensive window of administrative Service Hall, city government office

List of Application Materials:

1. Original passport
2. Registration Form of temporary accommodation (for the certificate of no criminal record for several years, the temporary certificate for several years is required)
3. Application form for Certificate of No Criminal Record (Collect and complete on site)

The agents shall also provide the following documents:

4. Agent's certificate
5. Power of attorney or entrustment notarization (direct relatives provide relationship proof and power of attorney, non-direct relatives provide entrustment notarization)